SILT Bootcamp

Unlocking Passion for Social Action
Offering young women the opportunity to embark on a transformative learning adventure.
ABOUT SoCh

SoCh for Social Change is a social enterprise that aims to tap into the potential and passion of young individuals for social action. SoCh believes that it is imperative for communities and countries to engage and empower young individuals to achieve the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs 2030). It is with this mission that SoCh works with young individuals interested in the social and development sector.

ABOUT SILT BOOTCAMP

The SILT Bootcamp is a 6-month part-time, in-person programme for young women in their 20s. It aims to fill an important gap by orienting future leaders and changemakers to the sector and helping them discover their place within it. Also, changemakers need flexibility. The SILT Bootcamp provides a unique opportunity for graduate, post-graduate students and professionals to explore social impact leadership without disconnecting from their ongoing commitments.

SILT FRAMEWORK

SILT Bootcamp participants will be provided with vital information, knowledge and space to reflect on learnings about the development sector. The Bootcamp is designed within a fertile SILT framework with elements such as Social, Impact, Leadership and Transformation. The framework remains integral to the journey of the Bootcamp which is covered in three phases.

STRUCTURE

The SILT Bootcamp is a part-time programme that will be spread over a period of six months.

Month 1 & 2: Understanding Social Change
Month 3 & 4: Field Immersion
Month 5 & 6: Personalized Action Plan

The programme cost for the six-month Bootcamp per individual is: Rs. 14,999/-
